

FIH REGULATIONS Governing the Eligibility of a Participant to take part in International Hockey for a Country / National Association

1. General Principles

- 1.1 In these Regulations a participant is defined as either a player, umpire or technical official.
- 1.2 To be eligible to represent a country as a Junior or Senior player or as an umpire or as a technical official in an inter-nations event, a participant must be a national of that country. To be eligible to represent a country in a Masters inter-nations event a participant must be a national of that country, or have been a resident of that country for a minimum of 12 months immediately prior to the event.
- 1.3 Nationality is determined by the holding of a valid passport of the country the player is selected to represent.
- 1.4 The rules for the eligibility of players to compete in Olympic Games are governed by the IOC Olympic Charter.
- 1.5 The Executive Board is empowered to recognize suspensions or disqualifications of participants declared by the NA to which they belong and, if so, to see to it that these decisions are applied by all National Associations.
- 1.6 In the case of Junior and Senior teams the FIH Executive Board, and in the case of Masters' the Board of World Masters Hockey (WMH), may authorise National Associations to play against non-affiliated associations but only when the non-affiliated association has shown interest in seeking affiliation to the FIH or in the case of Masters then to WMH.

2. Junior Players

- 2.1 A junior player is any player under twenty-one (21) years of age at the relevant date.
- 2.2 A junior player who is a national of two or more countries at the same time, may elect to represent only one of them but while a junior he may, with the approval of the Executive Board elect to represent the other of which the player is a national, at the same level as the Junior player has previously represented the first country (at a "Junior level").
- 2.3 A junior player who, having represented a country while he is a junior, obtains a second or other nationality may, with the approval of the Executive Board represent that second or other country, at the same level as the Junior player has previously represented the first country (at a "Junior level").
- 2.4 A junior player who has represented a country at junior level becoming a senior player, he may make a new choice but, having made that choice and having represented a country at senior level, he cannot then represent another country at senior level for three years from the date he last represented the original country without the prior written approval of the Executive Board and the National Association for whom he has previously represented, but may request to change the association which he is eligible to represent only once as a senior player.

- 2.5 Any Junior player with dual nationality (or who has acquired a second nationality) but who has become a Senior player for the Senior second national team can, without prior approval of the Executive Board, represent the second country also at Junior level (while the player is within the Junior age restriction).

3. Senior Players

- 3.1 Senior players are all players selected to represent a country in an FIH sanctioned match or tournament which has no restrictions on age.
- 3.2 A senior player who is a national of two or more countries at the same time may elect to represent only one of them.
- 3.3 Having represented a country at senior level and / or been on the final entry team list as presented at the pre-tournament briefing, the player cannot then represent another country (including the other country of which he is a national) for three years from the date he last represented the original country and without the prior written approval of the Executive Board.
- 3.4 A senior player who, having represented a country at senior level, changes nationality or acquires a new nationality, may not represent the new country for three years after the date he last represented the original country without the written approval of the Executive Board and the previous National Association. Unless the player elects to represent the new country in accordance with this paragraph the player may continue to represent the original country assuming he has retained that country's passport. He may request to change the association which he is eligible to represent only once in his player's career.
- 3.5 If an associated State, a province or overseas department of a country or a colony, acquires its independence, or if a country becomes incorporated within another country by reason of a change of borders, or if a new National Association is recognized by the FIH, a player may continue to represent the country to which he belongs or belonged. However, he may, if he prefers, elect to represent his new country. This choice may only be made once.
- 3.6 In all cases not expressly addressed in the Statutes or Regulations, in particular in those cases in which a player would be in a position to represent a country other than that of which he is a national or to have a choice as to the country which he intends to represent, the Executive Board may take all decisions of a general or individual nature, and in particular issue specific requirements relating to nationality, citizenship, domicile or residence of players, including the length of any waiting period.

4. Masters Players

- 4.1 Masters players are all players selected to represent a country in an FIH sanctioned Masters match or tournament which has restrictions on age. The age of a Masters player shall be determined and calculated as at 31st December in the year of the event.

- 4.2 A Masters player who is a national of two or more countries at the same time may elect to represent only one of them. In addition a Masters player may qualify to represent a country by having been a resident of that country whom he elects to represent for a minimum of 12 months immediately prior to the event in which he is to play.
- 4.3 Having represented a country at Masters level and/or been on the final entry team list as presented at the pre-tournament briefing, the player cannot then represent another country for 12 months from the date he last represented the original country without the written approval of the Board of WMH.
- 4.4 In all cases not expressly addressed in these Regulations the Board of WMH may take all decisions of a general or individual nature, and in particular issue specific requirements relating to nationality, citizenship, domicile or residence of players, including the length of any waiting period.

5. Umpires and Technical Officials

- 5.1 Umpires and technical officials nominated to represent a National Association must be a national of that country.
- 5.2 An umpire or technical official who is a national of two or more countries at the same time, may elect to represent any of them.
- 5.3 Having represented a country at an inter-nations event, an umpire or technical official may represent another country of which he is a national but must advise FIH before doing so.
- 5.4 An umpire or technical official who changes nationality may represent his new country immediately after having advised FIH of his change of nationality.
- 5.5 An umpire or technical official who is a national of two or more countries must declare his joint nationalities to FIH and the Technical Delegate of any inter-nations event to which he is appointed. Further, an umpire or technical official who has an interest in a country other than which he is a national of, for example living or officiating in a country of which he is not a national, must declare this conflict of interest to FIH and the Technical Delegate of any inter-nations event to which he is appointed. FIH will maintain a register of all such conflicts of interest.

Approved by Executive Board – November 2019 and updated
December 2019